People with a preference for sophistication in architecture, interior styling and home comforts will especially appreciate the luxury properties within the landmark Citania edifice in one of the finest districts of A Coruña. Set within close distance of both a beautiful bay with beach, and the historic centre of this lively Spanish city, the residence features elegant design and solid construction in the classic tradition of the region.

Inside, the three-bedroom, third floor apartment offers a tasteful blend of classically inspired styling and modern comforts, providing the ideal setting for sophisticated urban living and a blank canvas for many different decorative styles. The spacious bedrooms and large, sunny living room look out over a stylish piazza set within the grounds of this prestigious development, which also offers underground parking, security, concierge services and an indoor swimming pool and spa.

The kitchen, bathrooms, dressing room in the main bedroom suite and the home domotics system are all top-of-the-range, creating a luxurious living environment in which it is possible to centrally control climate settings, security and CCTV, Venetian blinds and lighting – the latter of which works with sensors. In these properties everything from the entrance foyer and lifts to the corridors leading to the properties is designed and finished with style, comfort and security in mind.
