This is a unique construction, with an avant-guard yet warm feel, which stands out for the way in which it has been positioned to provide spectacular views and extraordinary ventilation.

It is set out in an ordered, logical fashion, with a main floor comprising a spacious living room, kitchen and dining area, and a large terrace garden with an excellent 22m swimming pool, chill-out area and outdoor bathroom.

On the lower floor you will find four double bedrooms with lots of storage space, which also look out to sea.

It is possible to use one of the other rooms as another bedroom, with two more beds.

There is a private garage with space for at least three vehicles.

The house has been intelligently built, installed with the latest-generation automated home system, and extraordinary thermo-acoustic insulation.

Apart from its fabulous construction, the most outstanding feature of the house, without a doubt, relates to how people feel inside it.

Residents will enjoy feelings of well-being, control, tranquillity and peace throughout the whole house, especially on the spectacular terrace and in the inviting swimming pool.

extraordinary life houses

The Cullera municipality is a famous, lively and energetic tourist area, providing all commercial services, as well as entertainment and opportunities for relaxation. However, the Cap Blanc development is in the quietest zone in the town, which allows residents to enjoy peace, privacy and tranquillity, whilst still having access to the livelier areas.
