With a total space of 298m², this property is situated in an excellent building with a concierge service. The home is vast and radiant and consists of one main bedroom with an en suite, two further bedrooms, two bathrooms, an open kitchen, a cosy living room and a dining room, both with access to the terrace. This provides an alternative family space during the spring and summer. With this property, there is also the possibility to purchase garage parking spaces in the same building.

The local area has a character, like that of a residential neighbourhood, with businesses of all sorts, a strong community, large parks, sporting and recreation areas, schools, easy access into the city centre and shopping areas. A perfect place for a family with small children that want to live an enjoyable, delightful life.
